

Pablo Art. 305-RO2

A coffee table inspired to Deco motifs which precious metal legs intersected to create a stunning design. Matching to the dining table, the voluminous shapes remind of the great works of Botero, an important contemporary artist, vocated to the study of volumes and body sensuality. The iron pedestal is available in a wide range of finishings, while the top can be chosen in different materials (wood, marble, mirror, glass) Laser cutted iron pedestal, with square tube framework, polished by hand . Tops in different dimension and materials.
