

Fantasia chair

Padded chair for living room. The chairs are also elegant and comfortable with their large fan-shaped backs. The front legs are designed to be in perfect harmony with the other pieces in the collection.

ARREDOCLASSIC presents Fantasia, the collection which takes a new look at the harmony and elegance of neoclassical lines. The refined design full of detail interprets and translates the majestic atmosphere of Imperial Rome into today's style codes. The balanced proportions include Greek and Mediterranean influences in a soft and sinuous use of space. Gilded cornices with elegant detailing enhance and enliven the linear design of the marble surfaces. The furniture in the Fantasia collection is the result of careful philological research which once again emphasises the quality of our design, which is certified Made In Italy. We have again recreated the original shapes of the Neoclassical period.
