

Orchidea ribalta

Chest of drawers with flap, four drawers, bowed front and wooden top.

It is above all the elaborate and sophisticated inlay work which distinguishes and adds distinction to the elements of the Orchidea collection, which - as the name itself suggests - exemplifies through excellence. Made of solid wood and curl walnut, with bowed fronts, the pieces making up the Orchidea collection - chest of drawers with drawers or with flap door concealing a secrétaire fitted with open units and small drawers, accompanied by a bedside table - are all decorated with details in gold which add to their refinement. Inlays and hand-carving and tops further embellished with inlaid strips make the Orchidea creations objects worthy of placing within the most exclusive of settings. The insides of the drawers are covered with fabric. The furniture is polished with shellac and wax. The Orchidea collection is the fruit of research into antique styles by studio Boga.
